MCM A Meisenbach Company Consolidates with AssuredPartners

Washington-based agency provides full range of insurance brokerage services

Seattle, Wash. – [February 11, 2015] – Seattle-based MCM today announces it is being consolidated with AssuredPartners Inc., one of the fastest growing independent insurance organizations in the nation. MCM specializes in employee benefits, property & casualty, executive benefits, wealth transfer and retirement services.

The agency will continue to operate under the MCM name and the local leadership of John Meisenbach, Chairman and CEO, Don Bacic, President of Property & Casualty, Jim Hartz and Kathy Graffis in Employee Benefits, and Lorrie Baldevia and Rich Hultquist in insurance advisory, executive benefits and retirement services.

“For over 50 years, our vision and business plan has consistently been to offer best in class service to our clients as well as to provide our employees with an opportunity to advance and build a career,” said Meisenbach. “As part of the team at AssuredPartners, we look forward to continuing this legacy for many years to come.”

MCM’s decision to consolidate with AssuredPartners was made primarily based on the reach, opportunities and stability it provides the organization. “AssuredPartners has a formal national platform that allows for a stronger entry into national and international markets for our growing and diverse client base. In addition, it answers the succession issue for our clients and employees,” added Meisenbach.

Tom Riley, President and COO of AssuredPartners, Inc. added, “The AssuredPartners growth strategy centers on identifying and partnering with local and regional firms that fit with our common objectives. As our Pacific NW platform agency, MCM has an excellent reputation, culture and market footprint that makes it a great match for AssuredPartners. We welcome MCM employees and clients into the AssuredPartners family.”
